How to Reach the Detroit Tigers	32

Dear Tigers Fans & Friends:

Making a positive difference in the lives of people is as important to the Detroit Tigers as winning the World Series. Each year, we reach out to thousands of individuals and more than 2,000 charitable organizations in an effort to improve the quality of life in our local communities, around the great state of Michigan, in northwest Ohio and across the border in Canada.

Through the Detroit Tigers Foundation and community affairs initiatives, the organization has donated baseball equipment, financial resources and special experiences to positively impact more than 150,000 children each year. The Foundation is at the forefront of revitalizing youth baseball in our community, and in turn teaching our young people leadership skills, sportsmanship and confidence.

In addition to our focus on baseball, we place equal emphasis on providing educational opportunities for young people. The Detroit Tigers offer scholarships and educational programs designed to motivate and inspire our youth through the arts and reading.

Comerica Park has played an important role in the revitalization of downtown Detroit. Since the ballpark opened in 2000, the Tigers have donated more than $10 million dollars worth of tickets to provide almost 500,000 underprivileged youths with an opportunity to experience a Tigers game. Many of those young people were being given that opportunity for the first time in their lives.

A great source of pride is the personal commitment of our players and coaches, their wives, and our front office staff in supporting all of our community initiatives. We believe in Detroit and are committed to making a positive difference in our city. The following pages will provide an overview of our efforts and hopefully motivate others to become involved.

Sincerely,

Youth Baseball

The Tigers are dedicated to reviving baseball in our community with programs that bring baseball back to life.

Gloves for Kids

The love of baseball runs deep in the veins of Detroit. However, as financial hardships cause a shortage of equipment and time weathers our baseball fields, youth baseball suffers. Together with CBS Radio partners, the Tigers call upon our community to collect gently-used equipment and refurbish the fields where the magical moments of baseball take place. The Gloves for Kids program gave 400 kids at six inner-city baseball programs a chance to play ball by providing gloves, cleats, bats and balls.

Tigers players show off the impressive 1,000 pieces of equipment collected through Gloves for Kids. Funds and equipment are awarded to local softball and baseball programs.

A Little League Tradition is Saved

When the annual Hometown World Series little league baseball game was at risk of being cancelled due to a lack of funding, Ilitch Charities and the Detroit Tigers went to bat to save this cherished event by donating nearly $30,000 to non-profit organization Think Detroit PAL. The Hometown World Series game will now go on for years to come.

Tigers honor the Hometown World Series Champions – the best youth teams in Detroit – before a Tigers game at Comerica Park.

Children Learn Willie Horton's Passion – Baseball!

Tigers legend Willie Horton never forgets his hometown of Detroit and the children in need in our community. Together with Horton, the Detroit Tigers, the Youth Development Commission and Don Bosco Hall open the gates of Comerica Park annually to nearly 400 underprivileged children for Willie Horton's Batting for Kids day.

Children sharpen their baseball skills through competitions and instructional clinics. A few lucky kids even get to share the field with Horton during the event.

A Renewed Love of Baseball in the Inner Cities

Teams from more than 200 cities compete for a spot in the annual Reviving Baseball in the Inner (RBI) Cities World Series. Thanks in part to support from the Detroit Tigers, the Detroit Junior Boys RBI team has brought home two championships in recent years. The young athletes are featured in a special pre-game ceremony at Comerica Park and enjoy the game from a luxury suite.

Baseball Skills for Life

Pitching, hitting and running are the core skills in baseball. Major League Baseball and the Tigers help local youth develop these essential skills during the Pepsi Pitch, Hit & Run competition at Comerica Park. The finalists are honored during a pre-game ceremony and are hosted for an exciting evening of Tigers Baseball.

Education

Kids are our future, and nothing is more important than a solid education. The Tigers reach out to bring special educational programs to schools, recognize good students and even send a few deserving high school scholars on to college.

Alonzo King receives the Willie Horton Scholarship from Willie Horton, Detroit Tigers Foundation Manager Jordan Field, Northwestern High School Principal Patricia Pickett and Robin Ferrily of the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan.

An Opportunity of a Lifetime

A college scholarship can be an opportunity of a lifetime. Two deserving students receive a scholarship each year to the college or university of their choice.

Willie Horton Scholarship

In honor of hometown hero and Northwestern High School graduate Willie Horton, the Tigers award an annual scholarship in his name to a graduating senior from Northwestern High School. The Willie Horton Scholarship, administered by the Community Foundation of Southeast Michigan, is awarded to a strong academic achiever, leader and volunteer.

Ordoñez Family Scholarship

Created by Tigers outfielder Magglio Ordoñez and his wife Dagly, the Ordoñez Family Scholarship awards an annual scholarship to a student from Southwest Detroit. Established in 2008, the Ordoñez Family Scholarship is awarded to a student who shows strong community leadership and academic achievement.

A New Excitement for Reading

When a Detroit Tigers player visits a school to read to kids, excitement about reading skyrockets. Through the Detroit Free Press' state-wide literacy program Newspapers in Education, 100,000 students receive free reading materials about baseball and other important life lessons. Tigers players and front office staff visit schools to read stories and inspire the kids.

Tigers pitcher Nate Robertson shares his love of reading with students at St. Patrick Elementary School in White Lake, Michigan.

A Special Day for Kids Who Keep Schools Safe

Thousands of local children help keep their schools safe by serving as safety patrol members. The Detroit Tigers thank them for their service at Safety Patrol Day – a 50 year tradition. Nearly 6,000 safety patrol and service squad members attend a game courtesy of the Detroit Tigers.

Kids Use Creativity to Honor Jackie Robinson

Jackie Robinson's debut with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947 ended 80 years of baseball segregation. Each year, the Tigers invite local children to participate in the Jackie Robinson Art, Essay and Poetry contest to keep Jackie's memory alive.

By expressing themselves through these creative avenues, students better understand Jackie's spirit and his tremendous impact on our society. The winning children appear at a special pre-game ceremony, and then enjoy the game with their family and teacher.

A "Great" Day to Keep Kids Violence Free

Learning to avoid using violence to solve problems is imperative for children. The Tigers donate more than 1,500 tickets to area students who graduate from the Gang Resistance Education and Training (G.R.E.A.T.) Program, a school curriculum aimed at keeping kids away from gangs and violence. Students are treated with a special visit from Tigers Manager Jim Leyland and officers from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms.

Community

The Tigers thank the 3 million fans within our community, and our players and staff strive to give back to the community that supports them.

A Brighter January Day, Thanks to the Tigers

For a few special days during the cold Michigan January, you won't find the Detroit Tigers at Comerica Park. The team, along with coaches, broadcasters and front office staff hit the road for the Winter Caravan to visit fans and raise funds for charitable causes. Players can be found reading to elementary school children, bowling to raise funds, visiting kids in the hospital and attending public events in the community. Each year the Tigers visit sixteen to twenty cities, touching the lives of over 10,000 to 13,000 fans while raising money along the way.

Tigers outfielder Curtis Granderson makes a grand entrance at the Oakland University rally through a tunnel of energetic Oakland University cheerleaders.

A special fan at Children's Hospital of Michigan gets a baseball signed by Tigers pitcher Justin Verlander and infield coach Rafael Belliard.

Tigers Prowl the Streets to Raise Funds for Kids

Detroit became "TigerTown" over the summer when nearly 100, four-foot tall tiger sculptures were displayed along the streets of metro Detroit. Local artists decorated the sculptures for the TigerTown fundraiser, hosted by the Detroit Tigers Foundation and the Children's Charities Coalition. The tigers were then auctioned, raising more than $300,000. Tigers President, CEO and General Manager David Dombrowski, his wife Karie Ross as well as players and their wives served as volunteers and honorary co-chairs.

TIGERTOWN BENEFICIARIES

- Detroit Tigers Foundation
- Children's Charities Coalition, comprised of:
  - Child Abuse and Neglect Council of Oakland County
  - The Community House
  - Orchards Children's Services
  - Variety The Children's Charity

Foster Children Cheer on their Home Team

Three hundred young fans from the Child Welfare League of America (CWLA) attended a Tigers game, compliments of catcher Vance Wilson's family charity, the Wilsons3 Foundation.

Vance, Bridget and Peyton Wilson award the CWLA $2,500 from the Wilsons3 Foundation.

The Spirit of Volunteerism

The spirit of volunteering runs deep through the Tigers organization – a spirit that players want to instill in the youth of our community. Outfielder Curtis Granderson and pitcher Nate Robertson are spokesmen for the Action Team program, which encourages youth to volunteer. The players speak to the students about the importance of serving their community and later honor them during a pre-game ceremony at Comerica Park.

Healthy Habits Start Early

With childhood obesity sacrificing the quality of life for more and more children, Detroit Tigers head athletic trainer Kevin Rand and his staff invite more than 100 local children to Comerica Park to learn about healthy habits for a day. Through this league-wide program known as Promoting a Lifetime of Activity for Youth (PLAY), children challenge themselves during on-field clinics and learn important techniques to get in shape and stay healthy. The kids are inspired by a special appearance by outfielder Curtis Granderson, who shares his personal tips for staying healthy.

A Tigers Game for Every Child

Every child should experience the excitement of a Detroit Tigers baseball game. That's why the Detroit Tigers donate nearly 70,000 tickets annually to less fortunate children in our community through the Detroit Tigers Foundation and the Major League Baseball Commissioner's Initiative for Kids Ticket Donation Programs.

Among the 600 organizations that received $1.2 million worth of donated tickets:

- Boys and Girls Club
- Children's Hospital of Michigan
- City of Detroit Head Start Program
- Coalition on Temporary Shelter
- Southwest Detroit Little League
- Special Olympics
- Think Detroit PAL
- Youth Development Commission

Tigers Spread Holiday Cheer

The holidays are a special time for the Detroit Tigers family, and they enjoy sharing their holiday cheer with others. Each year, the Tigers treat a group of underprivileged children to a holiday feast and special evening of gifts and surprises.

Words of encouragement from a Tigers player and a visit from PAWS make a memorable holiday for the children.

Spending Christmas with Dontrelle Willis

Through the generosity of Tigers pitcher Dontrelle Willis, over 65 foster boys were treated to bags and bags of Christmas gifts. Dontrelle visited with all of the boys while they opened gifts of all kinds.

Special Fans
with Special Dreams

For fans facing life-threatening illnesses, their wish may be to meet a Detroit Tigers coach, get a special visit in the hospital from a player, watch batting practice from the field or hang out with PAWS. For a day, the Tigers make these dreams a reality through the Dreams Come True program. The fans' special time with the team just might be the inspiration to keep fighting.

The Tigers make dreams come true for individuals who contact us with special wish requests and through the following organizations:

- Make-A-Wish Foundation
- Leukemia and Lymphoma Society
- Rosemary A. Hockney Memorial Foundation
- Children's Hospital of Michigan

"For one moment my dad got to forget about being sick and enjoyed a dream that few get to share. The moment I got to share with my dad was a memory that will always be with us."

Brent L. Beard
SON OF RONALD BEARD

"Christine was so thrilled to be permitted to go on the field, meet players, receive very special and personal items, and enjoy a game. It was a special evening that lifted her spirits and will help her cope with the realities of the cancer she is fighting day-to-day."

Mike & Connie Wall
PARENTS OF CHRISTINE WALL

"Even with a rained-out game, the outing was a true success! In fact, when we jokingly asked 5-year old Caleb who won, he shouted, 'Tigers!' Obviously, he had so much fun being treated so special that he didn't realize the game was canceled!"

Tigers pitchers, Zach Miner and Todd Jones (accompanied by wife Michelle) brighten a patient's day at Children's Hospital.

Our Nation's Heroes

The Tigers are thankful for our fans serving our country and salute them for the sacrifices they make for our freedom.

A New Friend at Selfridge Air National Guard Base

Tigers pitcher Jeremy Bonderman and his family purchased a military themed Tiger named “Sarge,” from the TigerTown fundraiser and donated it to Selfridge Air National Guard Base in Harrison Township, Michigan. Bonderman personally delivered Sarge to the base, and spent some quality time with members of our military.

Salute to Our Troops

The Detroit Tigers salute the U.S. military during an emotional tribute game on Independence Day. One of our country’s military heroes throws out the ceremonial first pitch, and a joint-military choir from Selfridge Air National Guard Base leaves the crowd in awe with a rendition of the National Anthem. The seventh inning stretch is brightened by another patriotic tune. A surprise fly-over by F-16 jets from Selfridge also leaves fans reminded of the great sacrifices U.S. troops make to defend our freedom.

Tigers Favorites Raise Foundation Funds

Who knows the Detroit Tigers players better than anyone? Their wives. The Tiger Wives put this special skill to work to raise money for the Detroit Tigers Foundation. They personally pack baskets with their husbands' favorite things – from magazines and movies, to baseball memorabilia and gift cards to their favorite place to eat. The baskets are auctioned online through the My Favorite Things Charity Auction, raising nearly $4,000.

Tigers Wives

The Tigers Wives aren't afraid to roll up their sleeves and make a real difference in our community.

A Day when Kids with Cancer are Just Kids

For one special day, kids with cancer can just be kids. More than 80 children and their families enjoy ballpark food, ride the Ferris wheel, get their faces painted, play with mascot PAWS and watch a Detroit Tigers game at Comerica Park. The Boots n' Baseball Party, hosted in partnership with the American Cancer Society, features some special visiting time and words of encouragement from the Tigers Wives, and even a surprise appearance by a few Tigers players.

New Blue Jeans Take Away the Back to School Blues

We take it for granted that every child has jeans to wear when school is back in session, but unfortunately some kids need our help. Lily Polanco, wife of second baseman Placido Polanco, takes the lead on a campaign to collect jeans and school supplies with the Assistance League of Southeastern Michigan through the Operation School Bell program. The Detroit Tigers, colleagues at the Ilitch-owned companies, Gardner-White, Fox 2 and Tigers fans collect enough jeans and school supplies to send 1,000 local children back to school with smiles on their faces.

A Team Racing for a Cure

A six year tradition, the Tigers Wives walk in the Annual Susan G. Komen Detroit Race for the Cure,® locally presented by the Barbara Ann Karmanos Cancer Institute. The walk starts at Comerica Park, home of the Detroit Tigers, with 30,000 walkers. After the walk, the Tigers Wives honor the team with the most new participants with complimentary Tigers tickets.

A Scoop of Ice Cream Goes a Long Way

Creating a skilled workforce is essential for the prosperity of Detroit. The Tigers wives raise money to train workers by scooping ice cream for an evening at the Ben & Jerry's Partnership located near Comerica Park. The shop operates in partnership with non-profit organization Goodwill Industries, which trains and provides employment opportunities for young people who face barriers to employment.

History and Culture

The many cultures of Detroit Tigers players and staff help make them one of the greatest teams in baseball. The team invites fans, friends and neighbors to celebrate these cultures.

Permanent Fixture Celebrates Legacy of Norman "Turkey" Stearnes

During an emotional ceremony, a permanent plaque was dedicated to Detroit Stars player Norman "Turkey" Stearnes. A Negro Leagues leader in nearly every batting category, Stearnes was the first Detroit Stars player ever enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Everyone attending the ceremony, including more than 200 schoolchildren, learned about the significant role Stearnes and his fellow Negro League teammates played in the development of our national pastime.

(Opposite) Tigers owner Michael Ilitch, Wendy Lewis of Major League Baseball, members of the Stearnes family and Tigers President, CEO, and General Manager David Dombrowski enjoy the plaque moments after it was unveiled.

¡Fiesta Tigres!

The Tigers celebrate the collective achievements of Latin and Hispanic players each year with ¡Fiesta Tigres! at Comerica Park. Fans of all backgrounds enjoy special cultural activities, including live Latin music, salsa dancing and Hall of Fame exhibits celebrating Latin and Hispanic players. Several Tigers players team up to purchase more than 200 tickets for underprivileged children and families from the Hispanic community. Fans cheer for their favorite Latin and Hispanic players during a special pre-game ceremony.

Tigers pitcher Joel Zumaya and wife, Rachel celebrate ¡Fiesta Tigres! with young baseball players from southwest Detroit.

Tigers Pay Tribute to Detroit's "Stars"

The annual Negro Leagues Weekend at Comerica Park pays homage to the talented players of Negro League Baseball. Tigers players proudly wear the uniforms of the Detroit Stars team during a tribute game. Players including Marcus Thames, Curtis Granderson, and Gary Sheffield invite inner-city youth baseball players to join in the celebration by purchasing more than 130 tickets to the tribute game for these deserving athletes.

Fans also take center stage in the celebration during the "Detroit Stars" singing contest. More than 300 contestants are narrowed down to two finalists who perform at Comerica Park following the tribute game. Fans crown the best singer the "Detroit Star."

(Right) Tigers players Marcus Thames and Curtis Granderson wear Detroit Stars uniforms, last worn in 1960 when the team ceased operations.

Detroit Tigers Foundation

Enhancing lives through the game of baseball.

The Detroit Tigers organization supports our community in so many valuable ways. To further this goal, the Tigers formed the Detroit Tigers Foundation in 2005 to impact even more deserving members of our community with a focus on youth, education and recreation.

The Foundation aims to enhance lives through the game of baseball. In its first full year of giving, the Foundation awarded more than $185,000 in grants and mini-grants while investing $215,000 in scholarship endowments, totaling over $400,000 in cash giving.

Autographs for a Cause

Tigers pitcher Jeremy Bonderman loves signing autographs for fans, and when he can raise money for the Detroit Tigers Foundation at the same time – even better! Bonderman signs baseball cards and photos sent to him by fans in exchange for a donation. Bonderman’s donations benefit the Miracle League of Michigan, an organization which enables children with mental and or physical challenges to play organized baseball.

Bonderman cheers on Allen Williams, a player from the Miracle League of Michigan.

Book Signing Powers Up the Tigers Foundation

At a special book signing party, designated hitter Gary Sheffield signed more than 350 copies of his new book, “Inside Power” the day following its release. Proceeds of the book signing benefited the Detroit Tigers Foundation.

Tigers Baristas Raise over $10,000

Fans line up out the door at Starbucks to have some of their favorite Tigers players and mascot PAWS serve them coffee at the annual Detroit Tigers Barista Day. Starbucks generously donates $1 from every purchase to the Detroit Tigers Foundation to support baseball field renovations.

The Tigers can Bowl, Too

Tigers players and coaches tie up their bowling shoes and hit the lanes during a joint fundraiser for C.S. Mott Children's Hospital and the Detroit Tigers Foundation. The Base-Bowling with Champions fundraiser sold out, with net proceeds reaching nearly $18,000.

A New Field Just in Time for a Youth All-Star Game

Little league players in northwest Detroit enjoyed an All-Star game on the newly renovated Livius Paoli Memorial Field, thanks in part to $20,000 in support from the Detroit Tigers Foundation.

James Means, executive director of the Livius Paoli Foundation, along with Detroit Tigers front office staff members, unveil a sign at the dedication of the Livius Paoli Memorial Field.

Our Sponsors

The generosity of corporate sponsors makes it possible for the Detroit Tigers to reach thousands of children, families and people in need each year and to make every fan's experience at Comerica Park a memorable one.

Esurance

Online auto insurer Esurance raises $10,000 for the Detroit Tigers Foundation with the Detroit Tigers Doubles and Triples Program. The company donates $22 for every double and $33 for every triple Tigers hit throughout the season.

(Opposite) Paul Thompson and Melissa Chapman from Esurance present $10,000 to Elaine Lewis, Vice President of Public Affairs and Strategic Planning.

Pepsi

The Pepsi Bottling group generously supports several Tigers community outreach programs:

- Ticket Donations – Donation of 10,000 tickets annually, which are given to underprivileged fans through local charitable organizations as well as providing tickets to local students with perfect attendance at Pepsi Perfect Attendance Day
- East-West High School All-Star Game – Donation of soda, water and Gatorade help make this All-Star game at Comerica Park a success

Starbucks

Starbucks supports the Tigers and the Foundation through the following programs:

- Stolen Base Program - $100 to the Detroit Tigers Foundation for each base stolen by the team throughout the season
- Detroit Tigers Foundation Grab Bag Sale & Concourse Auction– Donation of giveaway items and prizes for fans
- Detroit Tigers Barista Day – Tigers favorites serve coffee at a local Starbucks. One dollar from each purchase benefits the Foundation, raising over $10,000

Starbucks Coffee Company Regional Vice President Joe Dallacqua presents the Detroit Tigers Foundation with a donation.

Community Partners

The Detroit Tigers are proud to support over 2,300 community organizations from memorabilia donations, to player appearances, to donating over 50,000 tickets and much more. Our charitable giving brings the joy of Tigers baseball to these organizations throughout the year.

The following is a partial list of the benefiting organizations in 2007.

How to Reach the Detroit Tigers

The Detroit Tigers Community Affairs department and the Detroit Tigers Foundation are dedicated to supporting our community through a wide variety of programs and fundraising opportunities.

Detroit Tigers Foundation Grants

The Detroit Tigers Foundation assists baseball and softball field renovations and other charitable activities related to education and recreation. All grant recipients must be public charities exempt from taxation under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. While grant recipients may represent a diverse range of programs involving all age groups, the Detroit Tigers Foundation focuses on baseball and softball programs that benefit the children and youth of Detroit and its metropolitan area.

Grant applications are accepted each year between September 1 and December 20.

Visit www.DetroitTigersFoundation.org to download the grant application. Mail all required paperwork to:

Detroit Tigers Foundation
2100 Woodward Avenue
Detroit, MI 48201

Fundraising Ticket Program

Organizations, charities, churches, schools and athletic programs can raise funds to pay for athletic equipment, educational programs, church functions and much more by selling Tigers tickets. Call (313) 471-2361 for more information and available dates.

Autographed Memorabilia Donation Program

Nonprofit and charitable organizations can raise money by auctioning and raffling autographed memorabilia at fundraising events. Written requests must be received by the Community Affairs department 90 days prior to the event. To submit a formal request for consideration, download the Autographed Memorabilia Donation Request Form at www.DetroitTigersFoundation.org and return it by mail or fax. Please note: the Detroit Tigers do not accept items to be autographed.

Ticket Donation Program

Charitable groups who may otherwise be unable to afford Detroit Tigers tickets can request donated tickets. All requests must be in writing and be submitted four weeks prior to the requested game date. To submit a formal request, download the Ticket Donation Request Form at www.DetroitTigersFoundation.org and return it by mail or fax. This program does NOT provide tickets for the following purposes: auction items, raffles, door prizes, giveaways, promotions or fundraisers.

Scoreboard Messages

To display a birthday or anniversary message at a Detroit Tigers game, call (313) 471-BALL (2255) or visit www.Tigers.com. All proceeds benefit the Detroit Tigers Foundation. ($50 minimum fee)

Mascot Appearances

Enjoy Detroit Tigers excitement all year long with an appearance from PAWS, the official mascot of the Detroit Tigers, at your special event, birthday party or community event. Requests must be received four weeks prior to the event date. Send appearance requests to PAWS@DetroitTigers.com or call (313) 471-2224.

Fan Mail

Letters to specific Tigers players should be sent to:

Detroit Tigers
c/o Player's Name
2100 Woodward Avenue
Detroit, MI 48201

We can not guarantee that letters sent to players and uniform personnel will be answered or returned. Please do not send items of high personal or monetary value.

Select players participate in the Autographs for a Cause program to benefit the Detroit Tigers Foundation. For a specified donation, these players will sign baseball cards and photographs sent to the address listed above. For a list of participating players, visit www.DetroitTigersFoundation.org.

Ticket Information

The Detroit Tigers offer a range of ticket plans to fit your needs. For groups of 25 or more, season tickets or other ticket plans call (313) 471-BALL. To purchase tickets for individual games, call (888) 66-TIGER. You may also visit www.Tigers.com
